

Training Regulation

A training management solution dedicated to global organizations and their subsidiaries

CHALLENGE

Global organizations have to deal with various and increasingly complex geographical or sector-specific regulations. Meeting those regulatory requirements has become a critical task for training managers across the globe. Besides industry-specific training rules, they need to adapt to local regulatory frameworks such as the French DIF, the Canadian 1% Training Act, the Spanish Fundacion Tripartita, etc. The international expansion of companies relies on the compliance with these requirements and is often coupled with large training investments.

Training Orchestra's Training Regulation module is the solution to help organizations think globally while acting locally. It ensures legal compliance for training management in a multi-subsidiary environment.
