

Training Orchestra to host Panel on Training Reform at SRH 2018

Paris, France; March 20, 2018 – Training Orchestra, the leader in Training Resource Management Systems (TRMS), will host the roundtable discussion, “Strategies to Implement France’s New Training Reform” on Wednesday, March 21, 2018 at 10:00 am CET in the Renoir Room at SRH Paris 2018.

This panel discussion will be moderated by Stéphane Pineau, CEO of Training Orchestra. The panelists joining Pineau include Philippe Debruyne of CFDT, Sébastien Lecat of Castorama, Claude Emery of Innov'Way Consulting and training industry expert Véronique Vagne.

“We are excited to bring together these experienced thought leaders to discuss the best strategies to address this reform, which will have a significant impact on companies, employees, and their customers,” said Pineau.

With over 15 years in the learning industry, Training Orchestra has a wealth of experience in working with partners around the world in regards to training regulations. Training Orchestra offers a unique solution to complete the learning tech stack for organizations relying heavily on Instructor-led Training. Training professionals can manage the entire training department with Training Orchestra’s TRMS, and will gain greater ROI from their training investments through precise cost-management, efficient resource use, and real-time reporting and analytics.

Attendees are invited to visit booth A16 during the event to see Training Orchestra in action and discover the ways that their organizations can train more with less via a purpose-built system to manage training operations.

About Training Orchestra

Training Orchestra helps learning professionals optimize the performance of their operation while maximizing their training investment. As a leading Training Resource Management System (TRMS) with more than 500 satisfied clients worldwide, Training Orchestra covers the whole training process from planning and forecasting, sales, scheduling and logistics, to reporting and predictive analytics. It replaces manual and inefficient processes with integrated solutions that enable Corporate Training, Extended Enterprises and Commercial Training Companies to Train More with Less.

For more information, visit <http://www.trainingorchestra.com>

Media Contact

Michelle Sullivan

Marketing Director

Training Orchestra

+1.703.283.9272 | m.sullivan@training-orchestra.com